

Training for Essex County

Name:

Date:

North American Emergency Response Guidebooks Drill #M-5

1. The FF shall demonstrate shall demonstrate/discuss how to look up a hazardous material in the NAERG.
2. The FF shall demonstrate/discuss the difference between the protective action distances in the orange bordered pages and the green bordered pages and identify when to use the orange bordered and the green bordered pages.
3. The FF shall demonstrate/discuss what following areas are in the isolation and protective action tables and identify recommended shapes of these zones:
 - a. Initial evacuation/isolation zones
 - b. Protective action zone
4. The FF shall demonstrate/discuss where emergency information can be found in the NAERG.
Emergency action
Fire, spill, leak control, first aid
PPE, including Positive Pressure SCBA
5. The FF shall review the protective actions in the white pages at the end of the book.
6. The FF shall review the section on protective clothing in the white pages at the end of the book. To identify the limitations of Structural Fire Fighting Protective clothing during a hazardous materials incident
7. The FF shall review the section of the Fire and Spill control in the white pages at the end of the book. Be able to identify the difference between a small/large spill for use in the evacuation tables
8. The FF shall demonstrate/discuss the proper use of the NAERG given a real or simulated situation.
9. The FF shall demonstrate/discuss the proper way to look up a chemical in the NIOSH pocket guide to chemical hazards.
10. The FF shall demonstrate/discuss the importance of each section in the NIOSH book.

Signature of Evaluator _____